AT the Court at St. James's the 26th Day of April, 1755.

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Order in Council of the Twenty-seventh Day of March last, to direct, That the Bounties given by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Eleventh Day of the same Month, of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, of Forty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, and of Twenty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, should be continued to be paid to every such Seaman and Landman respectively, who should, on or before the Thirtieth Day of this Instant April, voluntarily Enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Two Pounds, likewise given by the said Proclamation, should be continued to be paid to any Person, who should, on or before the said Thirtieth Day of this Instant, discover any Seaman, or Seamen, who should conceal themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service—And whereas the Time limited by His Majesty's said Order in Council, for paying the said Bounties and Rewards, is now near expiring; and His Majesty's Service requiring that the same should be continued for some longer Time: His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore Order, and it is hereby Ordered, That the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the said Thirtieth Day of this Instant April, to Tuesday the Twenty-seventh Day of May next inclusive.—Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Sharpe.

Stockholm, April 13. The Departure of their Majesties for Ulrichsdahl will not take Place so soon as was expected, on Account of some Repairs that are ordered to be made at that Palace: We have received an Account, that Baron Wrangel, Field Marshal of the Troops of this Kingdom, died a few Days ago at his Seat at Sperlingsholm, in the 75th Year of his Age.

Prague, April 19. Last Week a great Number of Carpenters, Masons, and Pioniers, were sent from hence for Hungary, in order to be employed in repairing the Fortifications on the Frontiers of that Country.

Rome, April 19. The Pope, on Notice that many Barbary Pirates have of late appeared on the Roman Coasts, has ordered the Towers and small Forts towards the Sea to be reinforced with Men, and provided with the necessary Stores. And Detachments of Horse have been placed at Fiumicino, Civitæ Vecchie, and other proper Places, to prevent the landing of those Pyrates.

Genoa, April 21. On the 17th Instant, arrived here the Margrave and Margravine of Bareith Culmbach from Antibes, with a numerous Retinue, in ten Feluccas. Their Travelling incognito, has deprived them of many Honours due to their Rank. No Notice was taken of them, till they came to the House that had been previously prepared for their Reception, by their Orders; the Day after, they were complimented by four Ladies, and four Gentlemen, in the Name of the Republick. Their stay here will be five or six Days, when they will proceed to make the Tour of Italy, under the Titles of the Count and Countess of Zollern. A Squadron of Algerine Corsairs, consisting of two Ships, three Barks, and two Chebecks, have been seen hovering on the Coast, between Port-Fino, and the Gulph of Spezzia. They have taken two Neapolitan, and two Genoese Vessels; and, it is feared will do other Mischief before they quit this Coast.

Florence, April 26. In Consequence of the Declaration of War on the Part of the Bey of Algiers against Tuscany, many Algerine Vessels cruize within sight of Leghorne; one of which, on the 21st Instant, took, at the Mouth of the Arno, a large Bark from Florence, laden with Wine for Genoa. The Pope has acquainted the Regency of this Place, that he will send his two Frigates to cruize against the Barbary Pirates. On the 24th in the Evening his Grace the Duke of Richmond, with his Brother Lord George Lenox, arrived here from Rome.

Turin, April 26. The Hon. Vice Admiral Forbes, in his Passage through this Place last Week, paid his Respects to his Sardinian Majesty, and the Royal Family, and was graciously received. He has taken his Route homeward through Switzerland.

Copenhagen, April 26. Three Frigats, and a Merchantman, intended for the Danish Settlements in America, lye now in the Road, and are ready to set sail with the first fair Wind.

Brussels, April 26. The Princess Charlotte of Lorrain, who came here to pass some Days with Prince Charles her Brother, before his Departure for Vienna, took Leave of his Highness last Saturday Morning, and set out soon after on her Return to Mons.

Paris, April 29. We have received Advice from Frenche Comte, that, on the 12th Instant, a Fire broke out at Champlitte, which burnt with such Violence, that almost the whole Town was reduced to Ashes, and twenty Persons perished in the Flames.

Hague, May 1. The Deputies from the Province of Friseland, who came from Leuwarden, in order to execute a private Commission from their Province to her Royal Highness the Princess Governante, had an Audience of her Royal Highness on Monday last. The same Day the Marquis de Grimaldi, the Spanish Ambassador, delivered his Credential Letters to the President of the Assembly of the States General. His Excellency has since been acknowledged in that Quality by the said Assembly; and To-morrow he is to have his first Audience of the Prince Stadtholder.

Dublin Castle, May 5.

Yesterday Morning, about Seven o'Clock, his Excellency the Marquis of Hartington, Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, embarked at Holyhead on Board the Wyvil Packet Boat, and landed this Morning, about Five o'Clock, at Skerries: Their Excellencies the Lords Justices, and several Persons of Distinction, sent their Coaches to bring his Excellency and Retinue to Town, where he arrived about Two o'Clock, accompanied by a great Number of the Nobility and Gentry. His Excellency was received, upon his Arrival in Dublin, by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Sheriffs, the Foot Forces in Garrison lined the Streets through which he passed, from Caple-street to the Castle-gate, escorted by a Squadron of Colonel Dejean's Regiment of Dragoons, the Battle-Ax Guards, and the other Officers attending the State, and thus proceeded amidst the Acclamations of the People to the Castle, where, in the Council Chamber, his Excellency was sworn of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took the Oaths appointed to be taken by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and received the Sword from their Excellencies the Lords Justices; after which the Great Guns at his Majesty's Park the Phoenix, were fired, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments on Duty, which were drawn out upon College Green; and his Excellency repairing to the Presence Chamber, received there the Compliments of the Nobility, and other Persons of Distinction, upon his safe Arrival, to take upon him the Government of this Kingdom.

Admiralty Office, May 10, 1755.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrent Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; as also with the Clerks of the Checque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Mr. Charles Fearn, at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute to the Widows of Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August 1732, as well as to the Widows of those who died since that Time, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, such Monies as may be due to them on the 31st of May Instant; This is to give Notice thereof, that any Widows who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do so as soon as possible; and that all such Widows whose Claims have been already allowed, may send or bring to this Office, by the 31st of this Month, the Affidavits required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Pension or Bounty.

Navy Office, May 9, 1755.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, that there is the Hands of the Treasurer of the Navy, Money to pay off all Navy Bills registered in the Months of April, May, June,

July, August, September, October, and November, 1754, with the Interest due on such as carry the same, in order that the Proprietors of, or such Persons as are legally empowered to receive the said Bills, may bring them to this Office to be assigned for Payment accordingly.

Victualling Office, May 9, 1755.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy hereby give Notice, That there is Money in the Hands of the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, to pay Interest and Non-Interest Bills registered on the Couse of the Victualling in the Months of April, May, June, July, August, September, October and November, 1754, with Interest due on such as carry the same, in order that the Proprietors of, or such Persons as are legally empowered to receive the said Bills, may bring them to this Office to be assigned for Payment.

Ramsgate Harbour, Friday May 9, 1755.

The Trustees for enlarging, building and maintaining the said Harbour do hereby give this publick Notice, that at their Meeting on Friday the 30th of this Instant, at the Office of the Corporation for the Relief of Seamen in the Merchants Service, upon the Royal Exchange, they will then and there state one Cash Account of the Receipts and Payments, and one General Revenue Account, agreeable to the Directions in the Act of Parliament for that Purpose: And they do hereby further give Notice, that the said Accounts shall lie open for publick Inspection of all and every Person or Persons, with their Secretary, at the Old South Sea House in Broad Street, London, for the Space of six Days after such Meeting.

Ard. Eliott, Secretary.

PUrsuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, The Creditors of Elizabeth Haddock, late of Charing Cross in the County of Middlesex, Widow, deceased, are forthwith to come in and prove their Debts, before Francis Eld, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's Inn, Chancery Lane, London, otherwise they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.
